

Senior recruiter

If you seek a real recruitment challenge, try to get battery experts from all over the world to the factory that will produce batteries for more than 300.000 cars. In Serbia.

Obstacles

- Spend a lot of time on surprisingly interesting and unusual recruitment processes, communicate with some amazing people and get them to join us
- Communicating with managers to articulate their needs and define the profile that they need for certain tasks
- Update or create a scope of the job and assignment descriptions.
- Use kick-ass management assessment tools to see how to develop somebody further
- Use various online communication channels to find and attract people from Europe, China and the rest of the world
- Have a lot of laughs, distractions by colleagues and “are those people for real” moments

Your little helpers in company

- A very professional and motivated team, eager to change the industry
- International management team, experienced in production, battery industry, business development and amateur tennis

You will also get

- Kick-ass management skill assessment program and all support you need
- A reasonable level of independence and influence
- A seat alongside founders in one of the fastest-growing and most promising companies on the market
- Opportunity to learn from the great management team and work with the most modern technologies
- Fair compensation and benefits increases
- Sense of pride for working in the only high-tech lithium-ion battery production company in the region
