

Marketing & Communications Coordinator

Your primary objective would be to effectively communicate goals and progress to a diverse group of stakeholders. To ensure that ElevenEs's commitment to sustainable energy is clearly evident, significant, and warmly received, you would be dedicated to developing inspiring narratives, establishing strong community partnerships, and maintaining open lines of communication.

What you can expect:

- You will learn how batteries are made, how new technology is developed, what green technologies are, and how they benefit everyone.
- You will regularly inform the public about current events to create ElevenEs's corporate image, as well as represent the company's culture and values to future employees and the local community.
- You will be responsible for managing the campaign calendar, ensuring campaign initiatives are executed with efficiency and accuracy.
- You will ensure that everybody in the company is adequately using and following predefined marketing guidelines.
- You will write interesting posts, coordinate photoshoots, prepare material for social media, communicate with the media, and present information about the factory and battery development in an accessible manner for all audiences.
- In the future, as our company grows, you would have opportunities to appear on morning shows, organize larger events, and engage with prominent figures in the battery industry.

You will also get:

- Significant autonomy and influence on the project.
- The opportunity to work in a high-profile international environment with employees from more than 16 countries.
- The opportunity to direct your professional development.
- Firsthand knowledge of green technologies.
- Sense of pride for working in the only high-tech lithium-ion battery production company in the region.
- Assistance and support in the case of relocation.

Your support:

- Professional and motivated team, eager to change the battery industry.
- International management team, experienced in production, and business development.

Profile:

- Minimum 4 years of experience in corporate communications and public relations;
- Bachelor's or master's degree in communications or other related educational backgrounds;
- Excellent copywriting skills in both Serbian and English;
- Green tech and start-up enthusiast;
- Experience in managing challenging projects is preferable;
- Special talent for creating material that will be easily understandable for the public;
